GOTHAM NORMAL SCHOOL NEWS

Activities of Oxford County Pupils

The House Committee sponsored a Christmas party in Center, Thursday evening. The room was attractively decorated with Christmas greens and a gaily decorated tree. A sketch, "Christmas with the Cratchitts" was presented. Miss Dorothy Packard, of Canton, took the part of clerk. Instead of the usual exchange of gifts each student contributed a small sum which will be contributed to the needy. The tables in East Hall dining room were attractively decorated. Margaret Dow, Rumford, and Berenice Ladd, Roxbury, were seated at the table which received the prize for the most original decorations. Following the party Christmas carols were sung on the stairs in Hall Hall.

Coach Clifford C. Warden has announced the members of the basketball squad. Daniel Wright, North Newry, is a member of the Mid Senior squad. Laurence Bartlett and Paul Chapman, both of Bethel, are among those on the Junior squad.

Miss Arlene Watson, Rumford, was a week end visitor on the campus. Miss Watson was graduated from the three year course last June.

The combined Glee Clubs and the orchestra presented the cantata, "Child Jesus," Friday morning. Several classes of Junior High school pupils were the guests of the school. Among those who took part in the entertainment were Margaret Palladino, Mexico; who is a member of the Glee Club; and Ann Hinds, Rumford, who played the accompaniment for the cantata.

At a recent meeting of the Art Club plans were made for spending the money received from the Art and Musical Entertainment. The club decided to purchase a reproduction of "Madonna and Child" by Benedetto da Maiano, a painting in the Church of Santa Maria Novella at Florence. This picture will be given to the school. The club also plans a party which will be held at some future date.

The Glee Club held a Christmas party, Monday evening. Christmas carols were sung around a tree, then gifts and candy were distributed. Margaret Dow, Rumford, was among those present.

The Glee Clubs and the Y. W. C. A. sang Christmas carols in the village streets Thursday evening. The carolers stopped to sing at every house where a lighted candle had been placed in the window. The caroling was under the direction of Miss Miriam E. Andrews, instructor in Music.

The Normal School closed for the Christmas recess, Friday, December 23. Classes will begin again on January 3 of the new year.

NEWRY

H. R. Powers and family were in Bethel last Saturday.

P. F. French has let Henry Eaman have one of his horses to use awhile.

Elmer Bean of Colebrook was in town last Sunday with his wife and, he is on his way to Bethel, to visit his parents.

The school here closed last Friday for a week's vacation. There was a Christmas tree with gifts for the children. Miss Cameron went to her home in Portland Friday night.

Mr. Burnham went to Bethel last Saturday on the stage to do some shopping.

Miss Eleanor Learned is at home from her school at Bethel a few days.

Charles Eddy is working in Roxbury for Bartlett Bros.

A Happy New Year

is the greeting we extend to all our townfolk, and with it the sincere hope that Nineteen Hundred Thirty Three may bring to us all substantial increase in those finer and better things which really make our lives worth the living.

ITEMS FROM THE BETHEL NEWS OF DECEMBER 31, 1902.

We regret to learn that Dea. H. H. Chapman is in feeble health. Mr. Eben Barker has sold his blacksmith business to Mr. Wilbert Baker, who is well known here in Bethel. The visiting G. A. Alumni appreciated the compliment paid them by the students in arranging for the Alumni social last evening, and attended in large numbers.

SUNDAY RIVER

R. L. Foster and Ivan Stowe moved down from Ketchum Friday.

Mrs. Joe Spilney is much better at this writing.

John Zale and son from Rumford Point were in this vicinity recently. Martin Jackson was in Ketchum for a few days, gumming.

D. S. Curtis and son Daniel of North Bridgton were callers at Arnold Cutting's and Roland Fleet's Friday.

Harold Howe of Norway was in town on Thursday.

Mrs. Addie Brooks of Bethel and Lloyd O'Brien of Cumberland Center, spent Christmas with Mrs. Nettie Fleet and family.

Dorothy and Irene Foster were visitors of Hilda Fleet Saturday afternoon.

Phil Chapman of Bethel was a caller at R. L. Foster's on Saturday.

UPTON

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jenkins entertained their three sons, Cedric, Oscar, and Perry, their wives and children and Maurice York of Andover, younger brother of Mrs. Perry Jenkins, on Christmas Day, making a gathering of twenty-one. A beautifully decorated and well filled tree was enjoyed by all especially the children. During the forenoon a bounteous dinner of mashed potatoes, vegetables, roast lamb, chicken pie, mince and pumpkin pie and cake was served at noon. The outstanding feature of this dinner was a cake which was presented to Mr. Jenkins on his 70th birthday, Nov. 11th, by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cedric Jenkins. This cake has been kept in refrigeration for the past six weeks, and though it was a sugar cake, it was as good as though freshly baked.

The U. E. Society prepared four small Christmas trees with decorations and fruit, candy, popcorn and grapes. Sunday evening, Dec. 25. The members of the U. E. Society went by truck to the sick and shut-ins, namely, Mrs. Fred Lane, Mrs. Carrie Lane, Mrs. Clara and Jennie Brown, delivering these trees and singing Christmas carols. The fourth tree was carried by Rev. R. S. Irons, pastor, to Mr. and Mrs. Warrington Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Brown of Cliff Island are visiting his mother, Mrs. W. L. Brown, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Barnett and family spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. William Barnett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Richards and family spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mulse and family across the lake on the Potter Place.

The members of the Land-a-Hand Club had a chicken pie supper last week at the Library building.

Schools in town closed Friday, Dec. 23 for a two-week vacation. The schools gave a Christmas entertainment at the Church Saturday evening, Dec. 24, followed by the distribution of presents from the Community Tree in the church.

Miss Eva Fuller is in the hospital in Lewiston for treatment.

Mrs. Jennie Brown goes to the St. Louis hospital in Berlin, N. H., this week for a serious operation.

Edward Warren did not make a success of his trip to Canada last week. He went as far as Calais, Maine, and returned the next day.

A special Grange meeting is called for Friday evening to make arrangements for the next meeting when the Grange is expected to have a joint installation with Newry Grange.

WEST PARIS NEWS

Christmas Season Well Observed at West Paris

The Christmas season has been largely observed here. Besides the beautiful Christmas tree in the hall, there were many illuminated windows in the homes, trees and Christmas exercises in the schools, and observance by the Daughters of Veterans, Onward Rebekah, and Granite Chapter, O. E. S., and Grange.

The churches have celebrated Christmas quite extensively. In connection with the regular morning devotion and Christmas music each church has had trees and other activities. At the United Parish a Christmas tree and light supper and social held in the M. E. Chapel sponsored by the young ladies of Mrs. Bell's class. At the Universalist church a bountiful supper was served Friday evening under the direction of twelve young matrons of Mrs. Kimball's class, with about 150 present, adding Sunday School members, parents, and friends. A program of the supper to which each contributed one number, and a Claus appeared to assist in reading gifts from the well laden tree, ending evening a pageant, "Christmas Glory" was presented at the United Parish Church to a crowded house. The pageant was given by the churches, Universalist and United Parish, and was the best ever seen by these churches who unite in a year in a Christmas Sunday. New scenery has been purchased by these churches for the pageant. Mrs. Jennie Brown Dunham was organist and director, with Grace Dean Robinson of South Paris, violinist, and Mrs. Laura Willis of the second organ. The evening performance was near-perfect and was very appreciatively received by the large audience present.

The Finnish Congregational Church their usual largely attended celebration.

Ellingwood—Proctor
Mr. Ellingwood and Miss Lettie Proctor of South Paris were united in marriage Saturday evening at the United Parish church by the Rev. E. Maxell, pastor of the church. Ellingwood is the son of Joseph Ellingwood of North Paris and Mrs. Ellingwood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Proctor of South Paris. They will board for the present with aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Abbott.

Holt—Tripp
Mr. C. Holt and Mrs. Maud Tripp of South Paris were united in marriage by Rev. Eleanor B. Forbes, pastor of the Universalist Church at Bethel, on Saturday evening.

Granite Chapter, O. E. S. served supper for members Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. At the regular meeting which followed Mrs. William Edwards was initiated into membership. Mrs. L. Stearns of Boston University is spending the vacation with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stearns. Mrs. Fred Rollin of Boston is spending the Christmas holidays with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Mayhew.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Mayhew have just returned from a vacation at the University of Maine at his home here.

Samuel J. Caldwell has closed his house for the winter, and is boarding at Ralph Bacon's. Mrs. Clara Lewis, who has been housekeeper for Mr. Caldwell, is with her niece, Mrs. P. C. Mayhew, and family.

Mrs. George Kimball is visiting relatives in New York and New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. Elroy R. Davis spent Christmas at Lewiston with relatives. Ellen Beatrice Smith and nephew, Billy Smith, and Mr. Flint of Mechanic Falls, were callers Monday evening at H. R. Tuell's.

Miss Ethel Flavin of Peterson, N. J., is spending the Christmas recess with her parents.

Lovell Chandler has moved his family into Mrs. Irvin Bowker's house on Main Street.

A daughter was born to the wife of Lewis J. Mann at the Eastern Maine General Hospital, Bangor, Dec. 14. She has been named Constance Elfinor.

A FEW MOMENTS WITH THE POETS

FORTY YEARS AGO

I've wandered to the village, Tom,
I've sat beneath the tree,
Upon the schoolhouse playground
That sheltered you and me;
But none were left to greet me, Tom,
And few were left to know
Who played with me upon the green
Just forty years ago.

The grass was just as green, Tom,
Barefooted boys at play
Were sporting, just as we did then,
With spirits just as gay.
But the master sleeps upon the hill,
Which, coated o'er with snow,
Afforded us a sliding place,
Just forty years ago.

The old schoolhouse is altered some;
The benches are replaced
By new ones very like the same
Our jack-knives had defaced.
But the same old bricks are in the wall,
The bell swings to and fro;
Its music's just the same, dear Tom,
'Twas forty years ago.

The spring that bubbled 'neath the hill,
Close by the spreading beech,
Is very low; 'twas once so high
That we could almost reach;
And kneeling down to take a drink,
Dear Tom, I started so.
To think how very much I've changed
Since forty years ago.

Near by that spring, upon the elm,
You know, I cut your name,
Your sweetheart's just beneath it,
Tom;
And you'd think the same,
Some heartless wretch has peeled the bark.
'Twas dying sure but slow,
Just as the one who's name you cut
Died forty years ago.

My lids have long been dry, Tom,
But tears came in my eyes;
I thought of her I loved so well,
Those early broken ties.
I visited the old churchyard,
And took some flowers to strew
Upon the graves of those we loved
Just forty years ago.

Some are in the churchyard laid,
And none are left of our old class
Excepting you and me.
And when our time shall come, Tom,
And we are called to go,
I hope we'll meet with those we loved
Some forty years ago.

WEST STONEHAM
John Adams visited his brother, Percy Adams, for a week recently. Albert Adams hailed Zenon Pontab's wood, and Charlie Carley is saving and putting it in the cellar for him.

The school is closed for a two week vacation.

Zenon Pontab is sick and under the care of a doctor. Mrs. Albert Adams is helping with the work.

BOYS OFFERED BEST STORIES

Bad times are good times for magazine readers, according to the editor of youth's favorite magazine, The American Boy—Youth's Companion. More people are writing than ever before, he states, and their adventure, more gripping yarns, more downright reading thrills are due the magazine subscriber than ever in history.

The American Boy—Youth's Companion in 1932 will be loaded from cover to cover with great experiences. For adventure, the reader will travel with their Royal Canadian Mounted through forests and mountains, penetrate to the military posts of Borneo; ride with cavalry in India, plunge into the Amazon jungle.

There'll be character-building stories of the professions, of school and college life. There'll be articles on sports, travel, and science, that take boys to the Orient, that explain the mysteries of ocean liners and air transports. There'll be stories that satisfy the boy's wholesome appetite for fun and thrill, and his keen desire to learn.

The American Boy—Youth's Companion costs just $2.00 a year or $3.00 for three years. In other words, when you subscribe for three years, the magazine's savings enable them to give you a subscription for only a dollar a year! It's the ideal gift for that boy you're interested in, be he son, nephew, neighbor, cousin, or son of your business associate. And an attractive gift card bearing your name will go to him if you request it. Send your order direct to The American Boy—Youth's Companion, 550 West Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Service on your subscription will start with the issue you specify.

BRYANT POND

On Dec. 19, Miss Briggs' French class met with her at Mrs. Abner Mann's for a Christmas party. The teachers were also invited and a pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Thursday evening the Parent Teachers Association held a whist party which was well attended. There was a Christmas tree, prettily decorated, with a present for everyone.

There was a Christmas tree at the Church Saturday evening and the exercises were very good. They consisted of singing, a solo by Mrs. Redman, a few single pieces by the Little tots and a pageant which was greatly enjoyed. The church was very prettily decorated.

NORTH NEWRY

The farm bureau met with Mrs. Herbert H. Morton, Dec. 21, with six present. Demonstration Agent, Miss Ada Brewster was present and meetings were planned for the year. The following officers were elected: Chairman, Mrs. Fred W. Wight; Secretary, Mrs. Herbert H. Morton; Project leaders: Clothing, Ramona R. Morton; Food, Bertha Rogers; Home Management, Mrs. Percy M. Walker.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Percy Walker, Jan. 31, and the subject will be Home Dressing.

Mrs. Herbert Morton, Secretary

E. W. Wight was in Lewiston the last of the week to see his brother, Arthur Wight, who is in the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Vail were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott at Oakland over the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Abbie Littlehale of Errol, N. H., was at W. B. Wight's a few days the first of the week.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wight Monday were E. E. Fernald and family of South Andover, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fernald and Frank Fernald.

Ernest Cole of Lockport was a caller at Hartley Hanson's Monday. Mrs. R. M. Bean and Miss Frances Bean were calling in this vicinity Tuesday.

Mrs. Claude Morton and Mrs. A. W. Herrick called on Mrs. L. E. Wight Monday afternoon.

Rowe Hill, Greenwood

The Bryant School closed, Dec. 15, for two weeks. The teacher, Miss Maude Sells, has been to the C. M. G. Hospital and had her tonsils removed. She is getting along nicely. There was a Christmas tree at the schoolhouse Dec. 15, with a good program given by the children and members of the Christian Endeavor. The contest with Ray Hanson and Ernest Brooks as leaders is closed with Ray Hanson in the lead 35 points. Members of the Christian Endeavor at Bryant Pond took charge of the meeting here last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson at the Lone Cabin entertained about 30 people at a Christmas party. Christmas stories were read by Mrs. Johnson and there was a Christmas tree. Santa Claus with presents for everyone was present.

Miss Hope Ring was home Sunday and Monday from Lewiston. Mrs. Elsie Cole of Locke Mills and two children spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Dunham. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cole and children were guests there Sunday.

We are glad to hear that little Billy Ring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ring of Bryant Pond, is getting along nicely and probably will not have to return to the hospital. The high school pupils are enjoying a week's vacation. Ray Hanson spent Christmas day with his parents at Newry.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Many from South Woodstock attended or took part in the Christmas entertainments at West Paris and at Bryant Pond.

A Christmas dinner and tree was enjoyed at the home of A. M. Andrews. Mr. Andrews was surrounded by his children and grandchildren, a family group of over twenty, besides several especially invited friends. Mr. Andrews has passed the three score and ten by several years but bears his years lightly and enjoyed the festivities with the keenness of the youngest.

Trees and Christmas dinners were enjoyed at many other homes here. Pretty Christmas wreaths at the doors and windows testified to the Christmas cheer within. Many had invited guests, while others visited among friends. Charles Harlow, retired veteran schoolmaster from Ridgelyville, was a caller among old time friends recently. More especially this time, to remember with Christmas gifts his grandchildren, the Harlow and Silver children.

All the school children are enjoying their Christmas vacation. The weather is delightful and just enough snow for the youngsters to enjoy the new sleds, one of the most welcome gifts given by Santa.

Mrs. Bernice Davis entertained her brother, Atwood Radcliff, from Camp Devens, for Christmas. Mr. Radcliff is a three-year service man in the U. S. Army.

Union School Christmas Program.
Union School, Miss Mary Hendrickson, principal, presented the following program to a crowded house, on December 22d:

Song, Merry Christmas, Six Girls
Poem, A Wish, Noreen Kennison
Christmas (Acrostic) Nine Children
A Riddle, Irvin Kennison
Peace Enough for All, Allison Benson
Song, Santa Claus, School
Poem, A Wish, Leslie Thurlow
Signs of Christmas.

Two Girls and Two Boys
Song, Envy, Jimmy Baker
Song, Old Santa Is Coming, Cecel Roberts
Poem, A Bird's Christmas, Viola Crocker
Poem, Christmas Bells, Dorothy Laurence
Telling Santa What to Bring, Dot Laurence, Ouelia Roberts
Piece, Mr. Santa Claus, Rena Roberts
Poem, An Address to Santa Claus, Linda Laurence
Duet, Christmas in the Air, Jerlean Kennison and Lucy Curtis
Piece, A Christmas Song, Tolsto Koskela
Piece, Minnie and Mickey, Elsie Dean
Dialogue, A Suggestion, Three Boys
Christmas Time, Mildard Crocker
Song, Old Santa Claus, Six Girls
Poem, Signs of Christmas, Kenneth Kennison
Poem, Two Little Stockings, Lucy Curtis
Duet, Irvin and Marjorie Kennison
Piece, Marriage of Santa Claus, Audrey Crocker
Poem, Santa Claus Petition, Miriam Hendrickson
Poem, Tree of Treasures, Ernest Curtis
Song and Pantomime, Silent Night, Lucy Curtis

The large and beautiful Christmas tree with presents for everyone was a beautiful sight. Santa Claus was present and delighted the little folks with many jokes and jokes, all making a most joyful Christmas.

NEWRY CORNER

THE FINGER POINTS

Making Resolutions

The New Year ushers in a period of resolution. It has grown to be the custom to contemplate turning over a new leaf of life with the hanging of a new calendar. A season when we look back on our follies and petty crimes of the past year and vow that we will better be in the next. But it is a queer coincidence that our resolutions are mostly petty ones, made in a moment of self-recrimination, and easily forgotten. The candy lover resolves not to eat candy; the tobacco habitue swears off smoking; and so the list grows. They are mostly selfish resolutions affecting our own health and pleasures. How many people resolve to go to (and support) their church more regular; resolve to turn more of their thought to the welfare of their neighbors, the their charity can be but a friendly smile; resolve to get behind community enterprises and support community projects? And how many would keep these resolutions, anyway?

Clear the Walks

It is strange that so many people who are privileged with sidewalks in front of their homes are so lax about clearing them of snow after a storm. What a lot of healthful exercise they could get by just shouldering a shovel and getting out to dig! And how convenient it is, when roads are sloppy and slushy, to have a string of dry sidewalks to walk on. Way down deep, though they may not express it, personally, every wayfarer thanks the resident who makes it possible to pass his home with dry feet. There is a little thing that many, who do clear their walks, neglect. That is to clear a ditch, the width of a shovel, at the gutter edge of the walk. When the snow and ice melts this ditch takes care of the surplus water; doesn't let it back onto the cleared walk to freeze.
